

Solar Thermal System

Characterize and upgrade a solar thermal system. Work on the 2007 Cornell Solar Decathlon House. Map out and thermally model the existing system in the house. Troubleshoot existing system to improve performance. Project will include creating a research presentation on solar thermal systems, use of home energy thermally modeling software, site visits to house and interaction with home owner. One or two semesters.