

Solar Thermal System

Characterize and upgrade a solar thermal system. Work on the 2005 Cornell Solar Decathlon House. Map out and thermally model the existing system in the house. Create a design for upgrading the existing system by adding a controller and storage tank. Project will include creating a research presentation on solar thermal systems, use of home energy thermally modeling software, site visits to house and interaction with home owner. One or two semesters.